Consul Daniels Celebrates Sixtieth Birthday at His Post in Sheffield.

The Yorkshire Telegraph and Star, published at Sheffield, England, said in its issue of July 3: "Many happy returns of the day to Mr. Charles N. Daniels, United States consul for Sheffield, who yesterday reached the comfortable age of sixty. Mr. Daniels succeeded Major Church Howe here in 1903, and is very highly and deservedly esteemed in our good city, every good American certain to be glad. Though he did not succeed in getting born on the anniversary of Independence day, he got very near it—July 2."

"It has been our privilege (writes 'Hambler') to know every Sheffield consul for the state. Previous to the war between north and south, the Sheffield business was transacted through Liverpool. At the close of the memorable contest, the Sheffield consulate was established, with Mr. George F. Abbott as the first consul. Large member years ago, various appointments, which record may be used for reference:

- "1867—Mr. George F. Abbott.
- "1870—Dr. E. Webster.
- "1871—Mr. Benjamin Folson.
- "1872—Mrs. B. B. Redie.
- "1873—Mr. James Johnston.
- "1874—Major Charles Howe.
- "1903—Mr. Charles N. Daniels.

"It will be observed that Dr. Webster has had the longest innings, extending to between 17 and 18 years, and a very excellent and acceptable innings it was. We trust to meet our present consul, beginning on Sunday it will continue until the next Sunday evening. Each evening during the week special services will be held at the church and music furnished by a choir composed of members of the society.

Sunday, July 25, the feast of St. Anne, there will be a special service with reception of new members in the evening.

In the morning the members will receive Holy Communion in a body. The society has been organized a little more than ten years and has a large membership, including the larger part of the married women of the parish. A number of handsome gifts have been given to the church since its inception.

Pauline, the year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simmons of Union street, died Thursday afternoon following a three weeks' illness with whooping cough. The funeral was held at 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon at St. Joseph's cemetery.

NEW LIGHTING COMPANY

Meets for Organization—Directors and Officers Elected—Walter Learned President.

The Rockville-Willimantic Lighting company, holding its first meeting at the office of the Willimantic Gas and Electric Light company Friday forenoon. The first name company was formerly the Willimantic-Stafford Street Railway company, but recently, through an act of the legislature, the name was changed. The company under the new name will be the controlling company of the gas and electric light companies in Willimantic, Stafford and Rockville.

Friday's meeting was attended by the men who were chosen directors and officers. These directors were elected: Walter Learned, New London; H. C. Murray, Willimantic; Alexander J. Campbell, New London; H. Stuart Hotchkiss, New Haven; Mr. H. Harwood, Stafford Springs; John H. Goss, Waterbury; W. M. Lewis, Rockville; J. A. Southard, New London; Thomas B. Brown, New London.

These officers were elected by the directors: President, Walter H. Learned; vice president, H. C. Murray; treasurer and general manager, Alexander J. Campbell.

Personnel of the Company.
These men are all prominently identified with large business interests throughout the state. The president, Mr. Learned, is treasurer of the Savings Bank of New London. Mr. Murray is one of the leading business men of this city and closely identified with a number of its best business and financial enterprises. Mr. Campbell is the general manager of the New London Gas and Electric Light company and president of the Business Men's association of that city. Mr. Hotchkiss is an officer of the Cande Rubber company of New Haven. Mr. Harwood is treasurer of the Stafford Springs bank of Stafford Springs. Mr. Goss is an officer of the Scoville Manufacturing company of Waterbury. Mr. Lewis is general manager of the Rockville Gas and Electric Light company. Mr. Southard is a director of the New London and Northern railroad. Mr. Perkins is a successful broker in Hartford. The attorney for the new company is Mr. H. C. Murray.

PUTNAM

Improvements Promised.

A prospectus has been issued by the company in which is set forth what it owns and the scope of its future operations in the gas, electric and power business. Various improvements and economies are clearly set forth.

After dinner at the Hooker house the gentlemen made an inspection of the local plant and tendered the courtesies of the city's freedom.

S. & W. NEW FACTORY

Formally Opened Friday Evening With Concert and Social.

The Smith & Winchester company's new modern factory at South Windham was dedicated informally Friday evening. There was an excellent concert by the company's band and dancing followed to music by the same organization. Refreshments were served and most enjoyable time resulted. There was a large number present to participate in the evening's pleasures. Cars were run to and from this city every half hour during the evening to accommodate the joy seekers.

Wagons Collide.

David Peacock, while driving a team hitched to a two-seated carriage down Church street Friday morning, collided with a milk wagon in charge of George Dutton. The rear wheel of Peacock's carriage got hung up with the hind wheel of Dutton's milk wagon, thereby springing the axle of the latter. Arrangements were made by Mr. Peacock to have the slight damage repaired, as he considered that he was at fault.

Old Norwich Paper Discovered.

In order to build a more modern dwelling at the corner of Maple avenue and Bellevue street, contractor J. O'Sullivan has had the old house moved back on Bellevue street. Friday while tearing off some of the boards of old structure there was found pasted on one side of the house a part of a copy of the Norwich Republican, printed in the year 1838. Some of the items could easily be read, although the paper was somewhat yellow from time.

Accidents to Wagons.

Two slight accidents disturbed the early morning serenity of Postoffice square Friday. A wheel of a carriage containing five men became caught in the trolley track and parted company with the axle. It was one of Stimpson Bros' rigs, conveying the men to their homes in the morning. The matter was at almost the same place a farmer's heavy lumber wagon from Warrenville while coming along Webster street, broke axle and the wheel rolled away. The load of boxes was scattered about the street. The damage in each instance was speedily repaired.

Circuit Burned Out.

The downtown fire alarm circuit was burned out during the thunder storm Friday afternoon. Chief Webster, with "Pop" Miller, was kept busy for a number of hours locating the seat of the trouble.
